

What are Teacher Leaders?

Teacher Leaders are instructional leaders who demonstrate respect, listening skills, and a strong work ethic. An equally important function of teacher leaders is to act as a liaison between teachers and district/ building administrators.

Leadership Descriptions	Stipend
Math Department Leader -- Leadership of math team alignment with the common core state standards, CPM, and proficiency-based instruction. Also, will be a lead facilitator of the RMS SMART Goal related to the achievement gap in math OAKS scores.	8%
Language Arts Department Leader -- Leadership of language arts team alignment with the common core state standards and standards-based instruction/ reporting. Also, will be a lead facilitator of the RMS SMART Goals related to the achievement gap in reading OAKS scores as well as improvement in writing achievement.	8%
Science Department Leader -- Leadership of science team alignment with the common	4%

core state standards, the Next-Generation Science Standards, and standards-based instruction/ reporting. Also, will be a lead facilitator of the RMS SMART Goals related to improvement of science OAKS scores and work sample success.
Social Studies Department Leader -- Leadership of social studies team alignment with the common core state standards and content standards-based instruction/ reporting.	4%
Special Populations Department Leader -- Representation of Special Education, ELD, and TAG students/ teachers.	4%
French Immersion and Language Acquisition (also SS and LA) -- Assists with leadership in the social studies and language arts departments as well as leadership of the French Immersion program alignment with the CCSS and content standards of Social Studies and Language Arts.	4%
Fine Arts, P.E., and Health Department Leader -- Leadership of fine arts and physical education departments; Representation of the needs of the departments as well as leadership on standards based reporting and writing in the content area.	4%
Represents Staff for CCSS/Writing in the Content Area/Smarter Balanced -- Assists with teacher leadership in a department as well as leading professional development for all staff related to the Common Core State Standards (and Smarter Balanced Assessments) as well as writing in the content areas.	4%
Represents programs of WEB/ House/ Climate/ Equity -- Assists with teacher leadership in a department as well as developing and supporting programs that improve school climate.	4%
Representation on data team/ data management --Assists with leadership in a department as well as providing resources for school-wide data support, analysis,	4% and management.

-----------------	--