METACOGNITION QUESTIONS FOR PAPERS

Choose 4-5 of the most appropriate questions below to answer about your paper, or answer the specific questions assigned to you by your teacher. Respond on a separate sheet, not on this one.

1. What is the prompt you responded to? Why did you choose this prompt (if it was a choice)?
2. What is the message you are trying to communicate to your reader(s) in this piece?
3. How effectively do you think you conveyed this message? Why?
4. What are you most proud of in this paper? How were you able to do this thing(s)?
5. What problems do you see in your piece? What are you least happy with? Why?
6. What needs do you recognize you have as a result of writing this piece? How might these needs be met?
7. What did you learn about writing as you completed this piece that you can apply to other writing?
8. What peer feedback did you not take? Why?
9. What was helpful to you as you wrote this piece? What contributed to your success?
10. What part of the writing process was most difficult for you? Why?
11. What questions do you still have about your paper? Why were these not answered for you earlier?
12. Finish this statement and then explain it: As a writer this paper shows that I . . .
13. What goals do you have that this piece of writing works toward meeting? How?
